Price includes entry and a private, docent-led tour through the many different themed gardens and scenic vistas. Our docent will share information about the many different plants, gardens and history of the area.

Activity Level and Description

Moderate

Our walking tour will visit many gardens. Please wear appropriate walking shoes. Additionally, some of the walkways are paved, but some are not. Pathways are wide and fairly easy to traverse.

Attendee Notes

Attendees are responsible for their own transportation. Please arrive 15-20 minutes early in order to park and get to the entrance. Parking is available on site. Our docent will meet us at the front entrance.

Course Description

San Diego Botanic Gardens in Encinitas has the designation as one of the "Top 10 North American Gardens worth Traveling For" by the American Gardens Association. Some of the 29 uniquely themed gardens that we will visit on our docent-led tour will include a tropical rain forest, the nation's largest bamboo collection, and regional desert landscapes. Thanks to our mild climate, plants from all over the world thrive in this 37-acre urban oasis.
