San Diego Oasis is an organization of learning and engagement to create opportunities for meaningful dialogue and deep thinking about current events as well as providing socialization, active living and intergenerational community initiatives to help low income children to learn. Conversations are happening everywhere to talk about the recent unrest from tragic events related to George Floyd. Won't you join Peter Bolland and San Diego Oasis for a presentation and dialogue to explore this very important issue?

Why It's So Hard to Talk About Racism with Peter Bolland
Class 398 | Tuesday - 7/28/2020 | 10:00 - 11:30

Why is it so hard, particularly for white people, to talk about racism? Why are conversations about racism often met with anger, fear, and guilt, only to grind to a halt in awkward silence and avoidance? Sociologist and antiracism educator Robin DeAngelo labels these unhelpful responses as "white fragility." What is "white fragility?" And how is it hindering our efforts to bend the moral arc of history toward justice? Until we recognize, acknowledge, and understand these paralyzing undercurrents, our highest aspirations for true American democracy, justice, and dignity remain unrealized
